marketing + audience

140,000 strong

We don't mean to brag! Our global retailer relationships have been carefully cultivated to provide an exceptional market experience in-person and now digitally.

Our new digital companion provides the tools you need to connect - live video, chat, simple appointment booking, and dynamic AI-powered search, so your products are served up to our community of 140,000 buyers. Plus, our cross channel social media reach to a combined audience of over 118,000!

our marketing outreach

Email campaigns to our database of 140,000 buyers

Daily social media engagement across Instagram, Facebook, Twitter and LinkedIn

Advertisement with media partners

Paid social media campaigns across all our channels

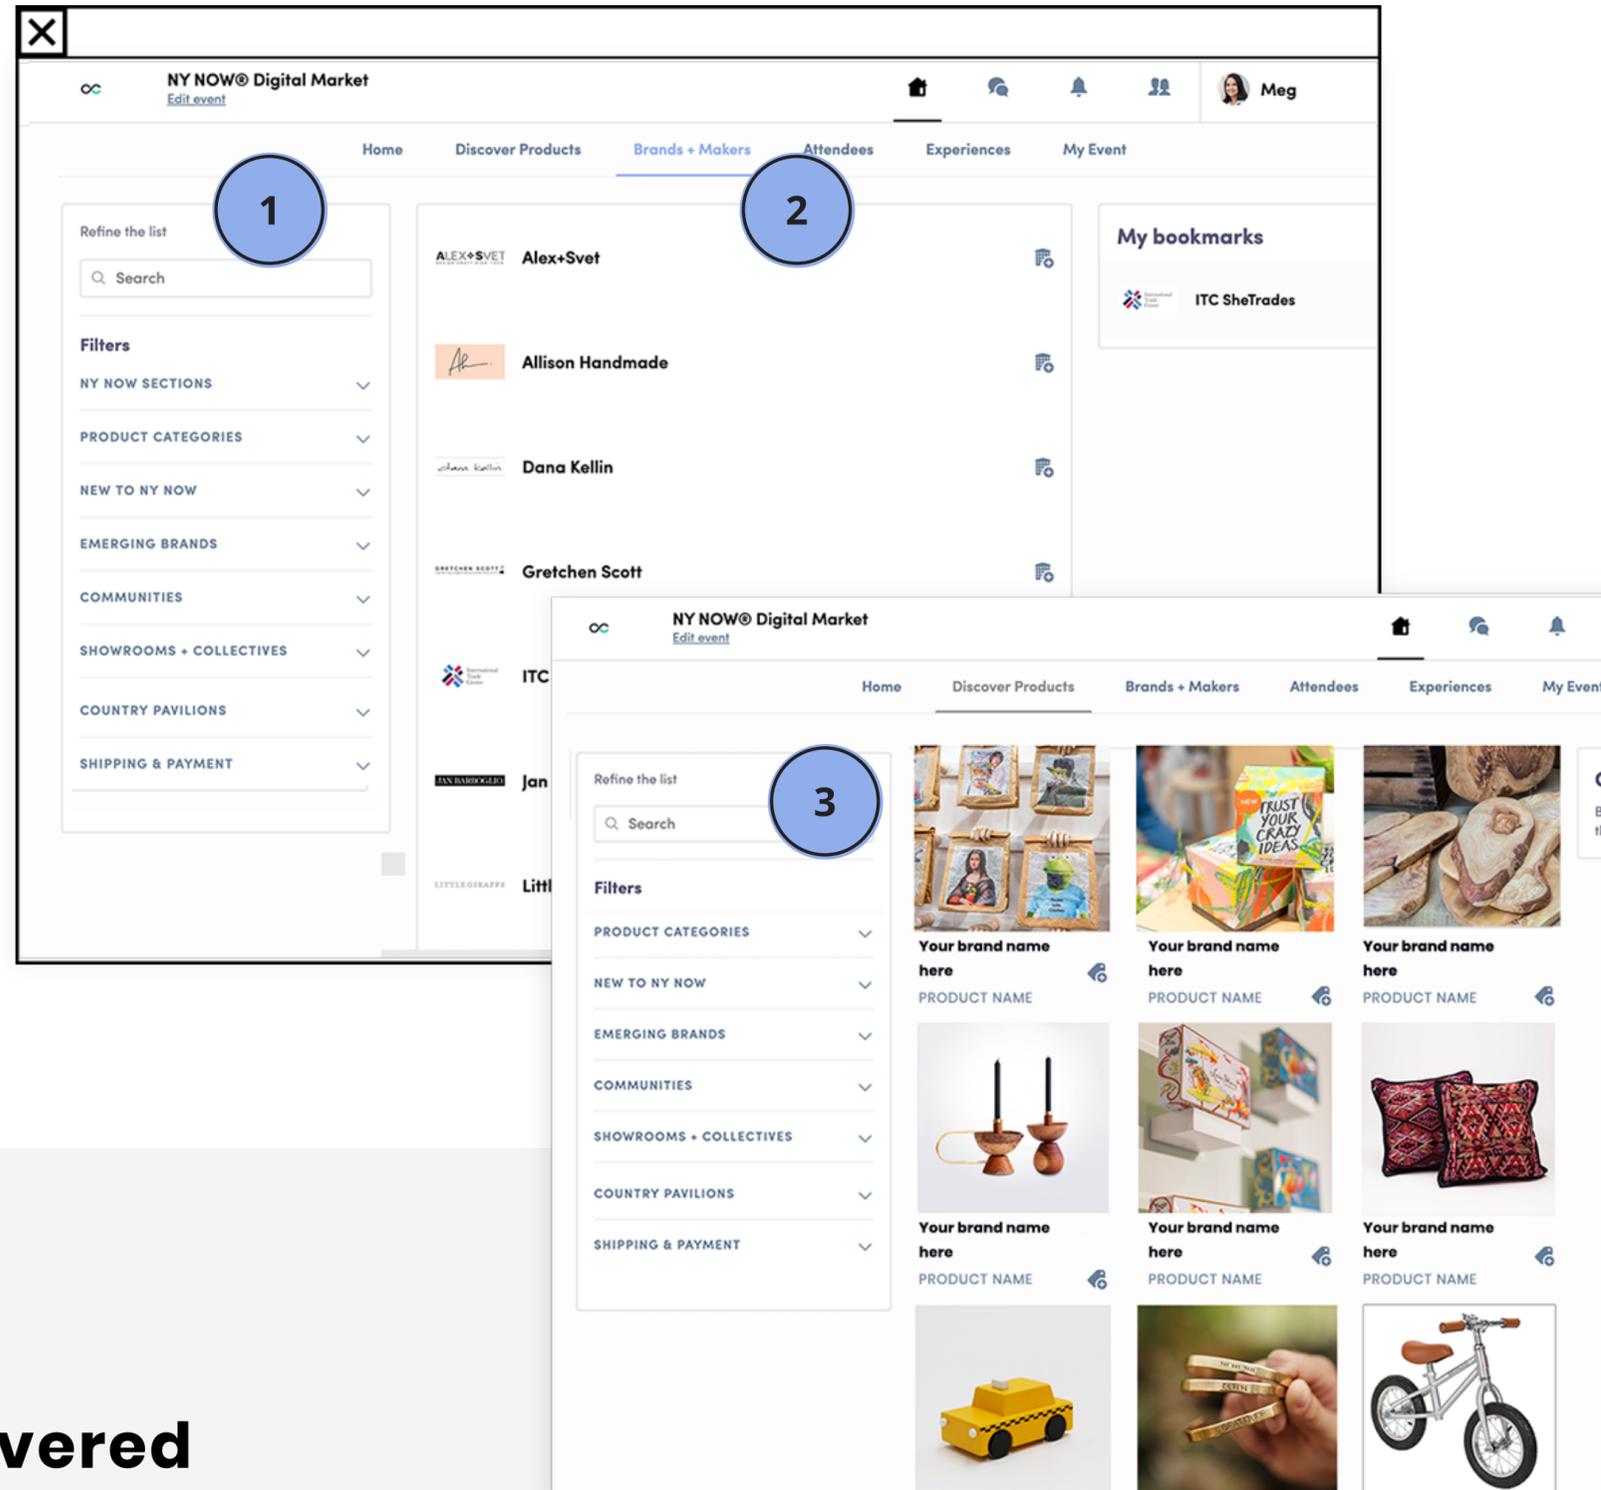

Telemarketing campaigns to over 40,000 buyers

Personalized buyer relations outreach to select groups of VIP buyers

about our search

The NY NOW Digital platform is AI-first. It presents the most relevant buyers to your brand based on content uploaded into your exhibitor profile and key identifiers retailers input at registration. Then as a buyer interacts with the discovery tools and shops the sections and product categories, the machine learning layer kicks in creating unique brand recommendations based on a buyer's browsing history and search terms.
